“ Your ability to ruin your child is not nearly as great as God’s power to redeem them. ”
Thank you, Lord!

Author Susan Yates

Coffee in the Kitchen is a Sunday School class designed for parents, those thinking of becoming a parent, and even those who have been through raising their children. It’s a place where friendships are made, as we share in the struggles of parenting. Our lessons are usually based around a video series with an accompanying book. The majority of our lessons focus on growing our Christian Faith. We recently completed Bob Goff’s book/video “Everybody Always”. Currently, we are studying the books Habakkuk & Obadiah from the Bible, led by Scott Shuffler, and we’ll begin a Lenten Study later this month. Often people can’t make it every week to class and that’s ok! So, join us when you can for Coffee (and tea) in the Kitchen! Blessings.

Ideas for prayer are shared from the Coffee in the Kitchen for each day of March. Feel free to add additional prayers that come to your mind and heart for people and situations in our local church, The United Methodist Church, the global church, and the wider world.
